Lieutenant Gilmer entertained at a very pretty luncheon on board the Franklin yesterday. His guests were Mrs. Wise, Miss Wise, Miss Kendall, Miss Emily Allyn, Miss Elizabeth Lauder, Miss Katharine Heath, Miss Bessie Chamberlaine and Miss Mary Bell White.

A SOIREE.

Miss Ethel Hardy closes her dancing class on Friday evening with a private soiree at Masonic Temple, which promises to be a bright event. A number of beautiful fancy dances will be given, the participants wearing appropriate costumes. The affair will begin at 8 o'clock.

Miss Hardy will resume her classes again the first week in October.

RECITAL.

The pupils of the preparatory department of the Norfolk Conservatory of Music gave a very pleasing recital last evening, which was enjoyed by a large number of their friends and relatives. This department is presided over by Miss Florence Butler, and the work of the pupils last night gives unmistakable evidence of that young lady's ability as a piano instructor. A high order of music was rendered, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present. Miss Hirsch is also a teacher in this department.

Those taking part were Misses Verna Cason, Alma Barham, Flora Hornthal, Anna Cohn, Lella Odendahl, Elizabeth Townsend, Julia Saunders, Cathleen Waddy, Nellie Oldfield, Hazel Barnes, Hazel Robertson, Sadie Williams, May Banks, Beulah Shumadine, Don Eure and Lena Everett.

Miss Booker and Miss Williams will sing a number of duets, among which will be that from 'Stabat Mater,' besides a number of other songs. Miss Booker's beautiful voice is too well known in this city to need commendation. Miss Williams will be remembered with pleasure by all those who heard her sing the part of Ruth in the 'Pirates of Penzance.'"

The two voices blend exquisitely together. Miss Booker's clear, high soprano, with Miss Williams' deep, sweet contralto, will make a combination hard to surpass."

Mr. W. H. Sargeant, librarian, who went to Baltimore a few days ago to attend the wedding of his brother, has returned. The Baltimore American has the following account:

"The wedding of Miss Charlotte E. Dubois and Mr. George H. Sargeant took place yesterday at noon at Grace Protestant Episcopal Church. The church was beautifully decorated with palms. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Arthur Chilton Powell, rector of the church. The bride was given away by General Hamilton Hawkins, U. S. A. The bridesmaids were Misses Annie O. Stuart and C. The affirmative speakers were Mr. M. P. Williams and Mr. W. A. Edwards, and the negative speakers were Mr. A. S. Hall and Mr. W. T. Robertson. The speakers were very convincing in their remarks, creating much enjoyment.

The jury decided in favor of the affirmative side. A collection was taken up, after which refreshments were served.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE.

Meeting of the Committee of Preachers Yesterday.

Report of Special Committee on Crying Newspapers on the Streets Sunday Adopted—Strong Speeches Favoring Still Further Efforts to Prevent Sunday Violations.

The adjourned conference of the ministers of the various Protestant denominations in this city, organized for the purpose of formulating a movement looking to a better observance of Sunday in Norfolk, was held at Epworth Methodist Church at 12 o'clock m. yesterday, with the president, Dr. B. D. Tucker, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, in the chair, and Rev. Daniel T. Merritt, secretary. Prayer was offered by Rev. A. Coke Smith, D. D.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to wait upon the city authorities and endeavor to get them to suppress the habit of hawking newspapers on the streets of Norfolk on Sunday, submitted the following:

The committee to whom was referred the question of securing the passage of an ordinance prohibiting the crying of newspapers on the streets on Sundays, have the honor to report that they have secured the introduction of an ordinance to that effect in the Select Council, to come up for action at the next meeting of the Council. In the meantime the committee will appear before the Committee on Ordinances to urge its favorable consideration by that body.

The report was adopted and the committee continued for tabulating a list of the laws of the State violated on Norfolk on Sunday.

On motion of Dr. A. Coke Smith, of Epworth Methodist Church, Mr. S. S. Lambeth, Jr., a prominent young attorney, was invited to co-operate with the committee in tabulating the laws.

The discussion of Sabbath desecration incident to the transaction of the business before the meeting was participated in by several of the ministers.

Rev. Dr. Mack, of the First Presbyterian Church, favored the method of attack by Stonewall Jackson—striking at some strong point of the enemy. He suggested that there be an attack all along the line, from the pulpits of the city, at an early day, going to the heart of the matter of Sabbath violations. In reviewing the subject he called attention to the following desecrations: Selling cigars, tobacco and drinks in drug stores, music in the City Park, which, he said, you and I are paying for through the City Treasury; selling merchandise generally in the city, which was characterized by the speaker as a miserable evasion of both the law of God and man. He also included Sunday excursions.

Rev. H. E. Johnson, D. D., of the Cumberland Street M. E. Church, emphasized the crying of newspapers on the street and the Sunday excursion, said the former was exceedingly harmful on account of its tendency to lower the general tone of the Sabbath sentiment through children, as well as others, in hearing the cries of wares on the Lord's Day.

Rev. J. Ernest Thacker, of the Second Presbyterian Church, told how the police of Alexandria, where he was a recent resident, would drag children before the courts for playing "crap," while they would shut their eyes to the shameful manner in which policy and gambling were conducted.

Rev. Dr. A. Coke Smith, of Epworth Church, referred to the practice of general merchandising on Sunday. He said that Hebrews, with whom he had conversed with, favored holding their services on that day as the people of the Christian belief do. The Doctor was very pointed on the Sunday excursion question, and remarked that on Sunday week the streets cars were passing his home on York street, all the afternoon crowded with church people who were members of the Christian churches in this city. Said he: "I do not know how it was with the other preachers on that, but my own church was not well attended that night." He said that Sunday was too cool for street car riding and at night he had a large congregation. He favored getting up a list of the Sunday laws that are being broken and then "speaking out our minds" in a manner that cannot be misunderstood.

Rev. Geo. W. Lawson, of the Park Place Presbyterian Church, favored bringing in a list of the laws of the State that permits the violation of the "Bible Sabbath," as well as the laws that are being violated. He thought that if the State, through its laws is permitting the violation of the Sabbath, that the State itself might be brought into line. He said the people ought to be informed on three subjects—the Bible view of the Sabbath, the State's view of it and the individual view.

Rev. Dr. Tucker, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, believed that a sentiment in favor of better Sabbath observance would be created by the time the next Legislature meets.

Dr. Johnson referred to the law that permits merchandise on Lord's Day as a contemptible law—the most respectable term, he said, that could be used for it. He announced his purpose of moving in the committee to make a test case by seizing some Gentile who is keeping open on Sunday and carrying him before the courts. He thought the law only allows persons to keep open on Sunday who conscientiously believe that the day to be observed as the Sabbath is the seventh day of the week. He supposed that the Seventh Day Adventists would be allowed rights under the law along with the Hebrews.

The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the special committee.
